

JONES ANIMAL BEHAVIOR

TRAINING FOR YOUR CATS AND DOGS

Education for Shelters and Rescues

Consultations and workshops are available on a wide variety of cat or dog shelter specific behavior topics, such as to dog play groups, bite prevention and handling, behavior assessments, dealing with behavior problems, and more. Topics can be customized to your organization's needs by request.

Topic options include but are not limited to:

- Dog body language
- Cat body language
- Creating and managing dog play groups
- Breaking up dog fights
- Dog-dog introductions
- Dog-cat intros
- Cat-cat intros
- Behavior assessments
- Safe dog handling
- Safe cat handling
- Socialization
- Fear, anxiety, stress or aggression
- Dog training (general or specific skills)
- Cat training (general or specific skills)
- Dog behavior modification (general or specific behaviors)
- Cat behavior modification (general or specific behaviors)
- Enrichment for dogs
- Enrichment for cats
- Stress reduction
- Behavioral assessments

Rates & Services

· Workshops & Seminars

Content can be presented via lecture only seminars, or hands-on interactive workshops. Hosts can limit attendance to just your key personal, or include all of your staff and volunteers. Events can last from one hour to five days! Organizations close to Rhode Island without a brick and mortar building may host events at the Jones Animal Behavior location.*

$150 / hr plus expenses

$800 / day (5hrs+), plus expenses

Dog Play Workshops

Learn about the value and impact of dog play, obstacles and solutions for shelters, safety precautions, safe handling, understanding behavior and play styles, safe introductions, what to look for during play, managing groups, and breaking up fights. This content will be helpful for anyone involved in introducing, facilitating, and maintaining safe play.

Presented by Katenna Jones, Jones Animal Behavior

(www.jonesanimalbehavior.com/credentials) and Erica Lessa, Cooperation Canine (www.cooperationcanine.com/meet-your-team)

$300 / hr plus expenses (lecture only)

- In-person, at your facility or Jones Animal Behavior facility
- No hands-on

$1200 per day plus expenses

- 2 days strongly recommended
- At your facility, with your dogs
- Includes lecture as well as hands-on practice